In his address to the U.S. Holocaust Memorial Museum, Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu expressed his condolences to the relatives of the Holocaust victims. Netanyahu said: Netanyahu to stand trial for bribery "Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu will be charged with the offenses of bribery, fraud and breach of trust related to Netanyahu's acceptance of illicit gifts from billionaire businessman Arnon Milchan, including expensive furniture from a Jerusalem-based company whose founder gave Netanyahu's wife, Sara, hundreds of thousands of shekels. Other illegal gifts include cigars and champagne." In his address Netanyahu had said, "I have already done public and written declarations in the framework of several police investigations and it is clear to me, that all of the wrongdoing attributed to me relates to actions that I took as prime minister, as the head of the Likud, as the head of the Kadima [coalition party] and as head of the government. No one else is responsible for my actions." Speaking at the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum, Netanyahu said that he was being unfairly targeted and accused by "evil forces" and had denied the claims. Speaking before the museum, he said he had not given Milchan any special treatment, and that Milchan had been treated no differently than other wealthy Israel supporters. According to the New York Times, Netanyahu "did not say whether he had accepted cash or other gifts as a result of
